- ‘(c) when carrying out a review of Part 2 of this Act in accordance with subsection (2)(a), the committee must take into account the principles listed and described in Table 1 –

Principle	Description
Boundaries.	The electoral system should be based on clearly defined geographic areas which are meaningful to people and take into account existing communities of interest, and existing electoral and administrative boundaries.
Diversity.	The electoral system should encourage and support the election of a body of representatives which broadly reflects the population of Wales.
Government accountability and effectiveness.	The electoral system should encourage the return of effective, accountable and stable governments, whether majorities or coalitions.
Member accountability.	The electoral system should ensure that all Members of the Senedd are clearly accountable to voters and able to represent them effectively and appropriately in the national interest.
Proportionality.	The electoral system should be no less proportional than the electoral arrangements in place immediately before this Act came into force and preferably be more proportional.
Simplicity.	The electoral system should be designed with simplicity and intelligibility for voters in mind.

Sustainability and adaptability.	The electoral system should be able to respond and adapt to changing political, demographic and legislative trends, needs and circumstances without requiring further fundamental change in the near future.
Voter choice.	The electoral system should enable voters to indicate a preference for a party's list, a named candidate on a party's list or an individual candidate.
