Introductions, Apologies and Substitutions

[1] Nick Ramsay: I welcome Members to the last meeting of the autumn term of the Enterprise and Business Committee. We have no apologies and no substitutions today. The meeting will be held in private so that the committee can discuss its draft report on town-centre regeneration and its forward work programme. The meeting will be followed by the first meeting of the procurement task and finish group, which will be held informally and in private so that the group can agree its work programme for the new year.
